TRENTON

Sections of Glacial Gravels exposed in Great Basin sedation at Trenton, New Jersey, made by Von Schrader under supervision of B. A. Schenck 1892. Mr. Demolder spent 5 weeks in the field with the workmen as the excavation proceeded and found no trace of definite object. The first polishes of all were found in the 3 boxes where of the same graves only a few years away.